Here before you
stands the council halls of the town of Yew.
Many a great deed was debated within these walls now perhaps lost to the passages of time for now they exist

only in the memories of those who were there.
Memories galore... Ah how it saddens my heart to see these roofs empty of life, to see no signs of activity whatsoever in the entire area. Long gone seem now the days when I wandered these woods daily and tuned my lute to the chirping of birds in the wonderful forests of Yew. They look as dead as the

this great loss.

A Veteran Citizen

Dear Veteran Citizen,

There are those of us who remember those days even those who never graced these halls who feel your loss and sadness and miss those days as well. Although we are small in number, this place and others like it will live on in our hearts and minds until we leave this world.

A Girl From Yew

Thank you all for the time you have given to the Town of Yew. Good or bad times we stuck together and still had fun while we helped as many people as we could. Still had alot of plans and dreams that might or not might happen. I regret

search for something I have not found. Long live Yew and long live all who ventured, became, served, lived under these great trees.

RIP Moonstone, we all miss you dearly, Thank you for everything.
